

THEATRE OF THE OPPRESSED

WORKSHOP

HILDE LINDEMANN
PROFESSOR OF PHILOSOPHY
MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY

OCTOBER 25, 10 - 1PM
followed by lunch

HOLY CROSS HOUSE
ST THOMAS UNIVERSITY

COST: $25

STUDENTS/UNWAGED $15

Workshop participants will take part in a style of improvisational theater developed in Brazil by Augusto Boal in the 1970s. It was originally intended as an instrument of liberation for illiterate peasants and workers, later, by teachers and students, and now by many groups of people all over the world. Participants will experience it at first hand, by acting in a number of scenes in which they get to change the story to promote social justice.

For further information please contact Lauren Eagle at (506) 452-7709 or eagle@stu.ca

Excellence in LIBERAL ARTS

St. Thomas
UNIVERSITY